IN CLOSEST LEAGUE FINISH OF HISTORY, CHIFEDS VICTORS

Losing First Game to Pittsburg, Chicago Drops to Second Place, But Wins Pennant in 3-0 Shut-out in Six Frames

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH] CHICAGO, Oct. 3,-In the closest big league race staged Chicago nosed out Pittsburg in the second game of a double header after having dropped the first game, and won the 1915 pennant.

Darkness held off just long enough to give Chicago the title on three runs scored in the sixth inning of the second game.

The league race was in doubt until the final game was played as for many weeks past there has been a constant shifting of positions on the part of Pitts-burg. Chicago and St. Louis, the Missouri City not being eliminat-ed until yesterday when defeat by Kansas City put it out of the
